Code of Ethics

The Code of Ethics for Educators embodies the ethical principles that guide the professional conduct of educators. It serves as a guide to help educators make ethical decisions and uphold the highest standards of professional practice.

The Code of Ethics is based on the following principles:

1. Professionalism: The educator shall conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with the highest standards of professional practice.
2. Responsibility: The educator shall respect the rights and dignity of all individuals and shall strive to provide equitable and high-quality education for all students.
3. Integrity: The educator shall be honest, trustworthy, and act with integrity in all professional dealings.
4. Respect: The educator shall respect the diversity of students, colleagues, and community members.
5. Confidentiality: The educator shall maintain the confidentiality of student information, except as required by law.
6. Professional Relationships: The educator shall maintain professional relationships that are free from personal or other inappropriate relationships.
7. Professional Development: The educator shall engage in professional development activities to enhance their skills and knowledge.
8. Ethics and Conduct: The educator shall adhere to the Code of Ethics and conduct themselves in accordance with ethical standards.

The Code of Ethics applies to all UMBC employees, including educators, and is intended to promote a culture of integrity and professionalism in the educational community.
