

Boone Street Farm Education Intern

Boone Street Farm is a quarter acre vegetable farm and community garden in the East Baltimore Midway neighborhood. Our mission is to cultivate sustainable agriculture and promote healthy eating in our neighborhood and city. We are a member of the Farm Alliance of Baltimore City and produce for restaurants, Waverly Farmer's market, neighborhood CSA and farm stand sales. We offer monthly workshops, volunteer days, and a garden club for Cecil Elementary School.

This spring we are hiring an education intern who can commit 10 - 12 hours per week from mid-march – early June. Intern must be available on Wednesday afternoons. This is an unpaid internship and will include educational opportunities, produce as available, and the opportunity to be an integral part of a small, community-focused organization.

Responsibilities

- Assist with Cecil Elementary School Garden Club Wednesdays from 1:00 – 6:00 pm
- Able to assist with lessons that focus on learning how to grow food, nutrition and environmental education.
- Assist with curriculum development
- Help with preparation and cleanup of the “classroom” spaces and supply areas before and after each program
- Strive to ensure that programming is accessible to a diversity of students
- Assist with general farm duties as needed

Qualifications

- Experience working with elementary school kids
- Able to multi task, work independently and take initiative
- Able to work with individuals from diverse backgrounds
- Availability on Wednesdays from 1:00-6:00, some work from home will be possible, and occasional night and weekend work may be required.

To apply please send resume and cover letter to boone.street.farm@gmail.com. Applications accepted on a rolling basis with an ideal start date of March 15.
