

Boone Street Farm Fundraising / Marketing Intern

Boone Street Farm is a quarter acre vegetable farm and community garden in the East Baltimore Midway neighborhood. Our mission is to cultivate sustainable agriculture and promote healthy eating in our neighborhood and city. We are a member of the Farm Alliance of Baltimore City and produce for restaurants, Waverly Farmer's market, neighborhood CSA and farm stand sales. We offer monthly workshops, volunteer days, and a garden club for Cecil Elementary School.

This spring we are hiring a fundraising/marketing intern who can commit 10 - 12 hours per week from mid-march – early June. This is an unpaid internship and will include educational opportunities, produce as available, and the opportunity to be an integral part of a small, community-focused organization.

Responsibilities

- Promote upcoming events via social media, promotional materials and other creative, grassroots means.
- Contact potential donors and lead fundraising outreach
- Assist with general farm duties as needed

Qualifications

- Clear communication skills when working with venues, caterers, donors, and all people that come together to make events happen
- Able to balance multiple tasks, work independently and take initiative
- Strong interest in sustainable agriculture, urban farming and promoting our mission
- Able to work well with diverse populations
- Availability on Mondays in preferable, some work from home is also possible. Occasional weekend and night work will be required.

To apply please send resume and cover letter to boone.street.farm@gmail.com. Applications accepted on a rolling basis with an ideal start date of March 15.
