Notes:

Candidates should have a GPA of at least 3.0 in the target language and related courses at the undergraduate level.

All MAT applicants must meet with an advisor from our Ancient Studies Department to have an informal assessment of their language proficiency and receive recommendations for language coursework. MAT students should meet with their education advisor each semester.

The internship occurs in two phases that are consecutive. Students should complete the application for internship on TK20 during the spring semester prior to starting Phase I. In Phase I, fall only, students spend at least two half days per week at their assigned placement school. In Phase II, spring only, students start their full-time internship in early January, following the schedule of their assigned school.

All students seeking Teacher Certification must submit evidence that they have obtained the minimum passing scores on the following tests prior to their application for internship:	Passing Score
Core Academic Skills for Educators: Reading Test Code 5712	156
Core Academic Skills for Educators: Writing Test Code 5722	162
Core Academic Skills for Educators: Mathematics Test Code 5732	150
Combined Test Test Code 5751
OR GRE (after September 2011) math and verbal	297
OR ACT	24
