Introduction & Goals

Student Learning and Licensure (SL&L) by Watermark

SL&L will officially be replacing TK20 starting this Fall (2025). TK20 will no longer be used for any new assessments, assignments, applications, etc. However, if you need access to old data you can still continue to use your login to preview old data.

SL&L is designed around engaging end-user experiences. SL&L also collects program and course-based assessment data, tracks student performance against specific standards, and gathers student artifacts. In addition, students will create necessary applications and complete internship (field experience) assessments and documents within SL&L.

SL&L is a product of the same company (Watermark) that created TK20. SL&L is one of their newer software offerings, whereas TK20 is one of their legacy software offerings.

Goals for Transitioning from TK20 to SL&L

For...

- ✓ More intuitive and user-friendly interface
- ✓ Institution-based model vs. student pay model, no “hidden costs”
- ✓ Better, more streamlined, more useful & detailed reporting capabilities
- ✓ Additional support from Watermark
- ✓ Software that is regularly updated to meet institutional needs more effectively and adapt to changes

What will SL&L be used for?

- Key Assessments
- Student Portfolios
- Internship placement information, assessments, and documents
- Internship applications
- Submitting edTPA

Please update your students and update all your directions, syllabi, materials, etc., to remove all mentions of TK20 and replace with SL&L

Accessing and Navigating SL&L

Logging into SL&L

* Please keep in mind that login method is different depending on an individual's role, so for example faculty sign-in looks different from students signing in.*

Faculty/Instructor Role Signing in to SL&L:

Faculty members/class instructors may sign in to SL&L through the UMBC single sign-on (SSO) link -

<https://login.watermarkinsights.com/connect/universityofmarylandbaltimorecounty>. This link will allow all faculty & instructors to login with their campus credentials to access SL&L.

When you login for the first time, you may see a pop-up requiring you to accept Watermark's user terms and conditions

A screenshot of the myUMBC login page. The page has a yellow background. At the top, the 'myUMBC' logo is displayed in red and black. Below the logo, there is a white box containing the login form. The form has the heading 'Log In or Create an Account' in black and blue. It includes two input fields: 'Email Address / Username / Campus ID' and 'Password'. Below the password field is a link 'Forgot your password?' and a green 'Log In' button. At the bottom of the white box, there is a red warning message: 'When you are finished... LOG OUT & CLOSE YOUR BROWSER'. Below this, there is a small text block: 'Important: Usage of UMBC computing resources is governed by the UMBC Policy for Responsible Computing and this notice.'
